The magic of

Jonah's

Perched on a cliff-top above some of Sydney's best coastline, hatted Jonah's Restaurant is steeped in history.

But while it opened in 1929, this multi-award winning property has a decidedly contemporary feel: it's only the commanding views across Whale Beach and the Pacific Ocean that haven't changed.

Today, those sensational vistas combine with an intoxicating cocktail of fine dining, luxury accommodation and Australia's best wine list (just one of Jonah's many accolades) to ensure Jonah's Restaurant remains one of Australia's most prestigious ocean retreats.

Sydney 5 Star Indulgence

Today we depart the Hotel and transfer to the heliport to take our charter helicopter to Wolgan valley in the Blue Mountains. Where we will have a fly over view of the famous Blue Mountains before landing at the Emirates One and Only Wolgan Valley Resort.

A scenic flight from Sydney, located on Australia's Great Dividing Range between the Wollemi National Park and the Gardens of Stone National Park, within the World Heritage-listed Greater Blue Mountains. The resort occupies just one percent of its own 7,000 acre conservancy. The Wolgan Valley is approximately 26 kilometres long and seven kilometres wide. The Wolgan River cuts a deep gorge through the sandstone in part of the valley, forming a bottleneck that is only one kilometre wide. Steep cliffs contrast with the gentle curve of the valley floor and a picturesque road winds along the river to reach the resort on the eastern end.

Enjoy your choice of activities including , horse riding, guided nature walks, picnics and extraordinary food options
