But while it opened in 1929, this multi-award winning property has a decidedly contemporary feel: it's only the commanding views across Whale Beach and the Pacific Ocean that haven't changed.

Today, those sensational vistas combine with an intoxicating cocktail of fine dining, luxury accommodation and Australia's best wine list (just one of Jonah's many accolades) to ensure Jonah's Restaurant remains one of Australia's most prestigious ocean retreats.

Prior to dinner

Soak in the sensational views as our in-house sommelier takes you on a journey through Australia's rich wine history. Comparing three wines from the best regions in Australia, you will learn about wine history, and how some of that has evolved into modern day wine etiquette and traditions. Whether it is the best semillon from the Hunter Valley, chardonnay from Margaret River or shiraz from the Barossa Valley, this complimentary wine tasting experience is a must do while staying at the retreat.

Running daily from 5pm, enjoy the experience before sitting down to dinner at the Sangoma Restaurant.
